

BARKLEY IN WALKOVER.

Gets Nearly Half Of All The Votes In First District Vote.

THIRD DISTRICT VERY CLOSE.

Anti-Administration Man Won In Eighth District Carrying Governor's Own County.

Louisville, Ky., Aug. 5.—Reports from nearly every precinct in Kentucky shows a remarkably heavy vote in the first State wide primary ever held in the State, Saturday.

In the third district where Congressman R. Y. Thomas is seeking renomination with John S. Rhea opposing him, the vote is so close that it will take a recount before the result is determined. Rhea is claiming the district by 200 majority, but the missing precincts may wipe out his short lead.

In the first District A. W. Barkley received 9273 votes, Denny P. Smith 5707, Jno. K. Hendrick 3874 and Jake Corbett 898. Barkley's majority 3566 over Smith. He carried every county except five. Smith carried Trigg by 1194, Lyon by 101, Marshall by 147 and Caldwell by 248. Hendrick carried Livingston.

In eighth district Congressman Harvey Helm was renominated by over 7,000, defeating J. A. Sullivan, of Richmond, in latter's own home, though Sullivan was supported by the governor.

It was the first opportunity women had to take part in the elections, they being able to vote on school questions, but they did not come out in numbers and the vote was much lighter than anticipated.

Congressman A. J. Stanley in the second, A. B. Rouse in the sixth, T. J. Fields in the ninth, and B. V. Smith in the eleventh, were without opposition. The republican vote was a very light one, little interest being manifested.

CLERICAL EXAMINATION

To Be Held In Hopkinsville On Sept. 7th.

The United States Civil Service Commission announces an examination in Hopkinsville on Sept. 7 to secure eligibles from which to make certification to fill a vacancy in the position of a temporary character of storekeeper-gauger, salary $3 to $5 per diem, in the Second Internal Revenue District of Kentucky. Competitors who fail to attain a rating of at least 70 in arithmetic or 65 in report writing will not be eligible for appointment, and the remaining subjects of their examinations will not be considered. Five hours will be allowed for this examination, age limit, 18 years or over on date of examination. For application Form 1371, address the secretary of the board of examiners at the postoffice, Hopkinsville, or the secretary Sixth Civil District, 403 Government Building, Cincinnati, O. No application will be accepted unless properly executed and filed in complete form with the district secretary prior to the hour of closing business on August 31, 1912.

Appeal For Help.

There are now ten children in the Orphans' Home. They are to be fed, and provisions are high. Rents, telephone and other expenses are to be met. The e, of course, call for money. Not a large or unreasonable amount, but enough to meet the necessary expenses of the work must be provided. We do not ask for a dollar more. We have out no solicitor now and the Home is wholly dependent upon donations sent in. Its support has in the past largely come in that way. It will take but little trouble to mail or hand a check to help the work. Many have yet given no aid and to all such we appeal for help to care for these dependent little ones.

Very respectfully,
W. D. Humphrey.

Thrown From Horse.

John W. Wicks was thrown from his horse Sunday morning, near his home on North Main, and sustained painful injuries to his head and side. He was in the act of mounting the animal when the accident happened. Mr. Wicks fell off the pike and the wound on his head rendered him unconscious for a while.

Lycan Brothers in Charge.

Mr. Sam Bumpus has resigned as manager of the Lafayette Ice and Electric Co. and Lycan Bros. are now in charge of the plant.

Current Comment.

The Senate passed the cotton tariff revision bill by a vote of 156 to 72, a measure identical to one vetoed by President Taft.

Mrs. Daisy Opie Grace, on trial in Atlanta on a charge of having shot her husband, was declared not guilty Friday by the jury, after two hours' deliberation.

Pitcher Lelievre, of the Minneapolis baseball team, pitched a no-hit, no-run game Friday against Toledo. It is regarded as the greatest baseball feat of the American Association.

Orozco's revolution in Mexico is about to play out. His sole purpose now seems to be to provoke the United States into invading Mexico. Shots were fired across the river into El Paso Saturday night.

Congressman Smith, of Texas, introduced a resolution in the House, instructing the Secretary of War to inquire into the loss of life by Americans killed by stray bullets from the Mexican side of the boundary line.

With the object in view of reducing the cost of living, Congressman Levy of New York, introduced a bill in the House, authorizing the Secretary of Treasury to use, at his discretion, the moneys in the Treasury, in a general fund, to reduce the tariff on articles of general consumption.

The majority report of the Stanley committee investigating the steel industry, the result of fifteen months' labor, was submitted to the House Friday. The report covers 248 printed pages, and is said to have been written in a large degree by the chairman, Representative A. O. Stanley. The report undertakes to trace from its beginning the operations of the United States Steel Corporation, and to recommend legislation intended to regulate or cure evils which, it alleges, have grown up in the steel industry.

COUNCIL.

City Fathers Fail to Get Through With Business On Hand.

The Council met Friday night, but did not finish its regular business and adjourned to last night to finish.

The ordinance ordering pavements on several streets was given its second passage.

The usual reports were submitted and filed and appropriations to the amount of $727 were made.

The mayor was authorized to borrow $5,000 more money for the general fund. This makes $20,000 to protect the overchecks until the taxes are paid by Oct. 31. A warrant of $500 was drawn to pay Downer & Russell's fee in connection with the litigation over the Latham will recently compromised.

Health Officer J. W. Harned submitted a report of his attendance upon the State meeting at Louisville last month.

VALUABLE PROPERTY

Sold at Public Auction by Master Commissioner.

By decree of court the "Stites Place," on the Madisonville road, just beyond the city limits, was sold last Monday at public auction by Master Commissioner J. B. Chilton. Mrs. Ida Gollady was the highest bidder and the place was knocked off at $2,500.

LOT SALE

At Lafayette Was a Great Success.

The Lafayette lot sale held Saturday was a great success in all respects. All of the lots, seventy-six, were disposed of in short order. Prices ranged from $35 to $250, the sale amounting in the aggregate to about $4,500. Bryan & Warren, real estate dealers, conducted the sale.

SOLDIER BOYS

Doings of Company D. In The Military Camp At Anniston, Ala.

Anniston, Ala., Aug. 3.—The orders of the day and "social affairs" have been so heavy that this is the first opportunity that I have had to write to the paper.

We are encamped some 3 miles from Anniston, a nice and lively city of some 18,000 inhabitants. The camp is located at the foot-hills of the Blue Ridge Mountains, and the scenery from the camp is superb. At one place on the grounds on a clear day five mountain ranges may be seen; the beautiful peak known as "Blue Knob" is some six miles away and may be seen most plainly, rising gently from the surrounding range.

These ranges give ideal facilities for sham battles, and maneuvers. Almost every morning a several mile "hike" is taken across the country, which terminates in a sham battle. On Wednesday the problem was to capture a hill from an imaginary enemy, advancing battalion by battalion, one battalion advancing while another covered its advance by a rapid fire, concentrated on the hill. The advancing battalion would then halt and allow the covering battalion to advance. This was continued until the summit of the hill was reached. The third battalion was held as a reserve, to cover the retreat of the former battalions in case of defeat. When the summit was gained, this battalion was rushed forward to pursue the retreating enemy. The maneuvers were skillfully carried out, and the U. S. regular officer in charge highly commended Col. Henry and the regiment for their skill.

The Kentucky regiments are certainly "mopping up" and the 3rd is in the advance guard. The Kentucky troops before their arrival, were the butts of a good many good natured jokes, such as "never saw a railroad before," "first electric light," etc. In fact, it seems that the Alabamians feared the 'Feudists' were going to shoot up the town, or drown it in 100 proof whiskey. Their views, however, have been entirely known that the Kentucky troops are the richest, cleanest, soberest and best behaved crowd that has been there yet.

Hopkinsville is holding up its reputation in camp. The Third Kentucky Regiment Band is declared the best on the grounds. When it cuts loose with "Hail, Hail, the gang's all here," at reveille, not even Lieut. Claiborne can sleep longer. On Monday night, Proprietor Mitchell, of the Alabama Hotel, had the Band to serenade the city, in honor of Mrs. W. R. Wheeler, of this city. The serenade was greatly enjoyed, and the Anniston papers declare it the best band in that city during the encampment.

On Tuesday night, a most enjoyable entertainment was given at the Kentucky Y. M. C. A. tent. A quartette from Co. A. of the 1st Ky., a speech by Gen. Ellis, of the U. S. Regulars, and Hopkinsville were the attractions. The saxophone quartette, composed of Messrs. Lebecheuer, Walder and Lieut. Smith was loudly encored. The versatile Mr. Shrode held the attention of the crowd for quite a while by a few of his slight-of hand performances. Almost all of the programme was made up of Hopkinsville talent.

The health of the fellows has been fine. Private Mitchell, who was confined in the Hospital for a couple of days, is out again. There is no fever in camp, nor any evidence of any serious illness. There are very few flies present and absolutely no mosquitoes.

The final order of the camp is the two day "hike." The regiments this time will march to the top of Blue Knob, some six miles away, fight a two days' sham battle and return. They leave on Friday and return Saturday. On Sunday night they will break camp and return home, arriving sometime Monday morning.

The Alabama watermelons, peaches, (including girls) and people are mighty nice, but it is the general expression of Company D that the more of Alabama we see, the more we want to see home.

Yours truly,
W. O. S.

LARGE CROWD

In Town Yesterday and Interest Centered on Anti-Saloon Petition.

The largest crowd that has been in town for some time was here yesterday.

The people were from every section of the county, and interest centered on what stand the County Judge might take on the petition of what was represented to be 25 per cent of the legal voters of every precinct in the county to call an election to vote on prohibition.

The anti saloon men were represented by Judge W. T. Fowler, Judge W. P. Winfree and Pettus White, while the fifty or sixty legal voters, who had not signed the petition, entered a protest by their attorneys Trimble & Bell and Hunter Wood, Sr.

The forenoon was taken up in legal arguments on various phases of the petition and at 2 o'clock the actual inquiry into the legality of the petition was begun. Hopkinsville No. 1 was examined and passed. Hopkinsville No. 2 was then taken up and the anti signed a petition from 72 of the 101 signers asking that their names be taken off. With these names off the petition would fall far below the required number in that precinct. Several other precincts will be contested in the same way, the anti claiming that only five names will be left on one petition.

No decision had been made at 4:30

SOLDIERS BACK HOME.

Company D. Returned Monday, All Looking Well and Happy.

BIG CROWD AT STATION.

All Enjoyed the Encampment and Nobody Got Sick.

At 7 o'clock yesterday morning the second section of train 92 pulled into the L. & N. station carrying Company D. and other companies of the Third Regiment State Guard.

As the train reached the station the soldier boys gave expression to their joy at being home again by a yell, which was answered by the large crowd gathered about the station.

After leaving the train Capt. Clark had them to fall into line, and as soon as the regimental band took position in front, the company was marched to the armory and the band went to its quarters on Main street. When the band began to play "My Old Kentucky Home" the soldier boys could not restrain themselves and gave utterance to another yell in which the crowd on both sides of the street joined with a hearty enthusiasm.

Col. Henry said that all the companies of his regiment acquitted themselves grandly during the ten days' encampment and stood the maneuver exercises with a will and fortitude much to be admired.

Capt. Clark is proud of the way his men deported themselves and the distinction won by his company in all maneuvers, as they always do. He has, he thinks, and doubtless he is correct, the crack company of the regiment. Not one of the company was ill during the entire encampment.

The cold wave, struck Anniston Saturday afternoon and some of the thin-blooded boys shivered as if they were near about frozen.

The train pulled out of Anniston about 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon. During the night the boys had a time keeping comfortable. When they got here they looked a little haggard and sleepy, but all were well and ready to "lay down their arms" and go home to a good breakfast and get a rest before going about their avocations today.

Wm. H. TANDY

Prominent Citizen of Pembroke District Dead, Aged 73 Years.

Mr. Wm. H. Tandy, a prominent farmer of near Pembroke, died Saturday night. Mr. Tandy was a son of Richard Tandy who came from Virginia to this county in 1811 and died in 1873.

He was born in Christian county March 15, 1839, and is survived by a widow to whom he was married Dec. 14, 1865. Also by one daughter, Miss Sallie Tandy. His only son, Gus P. Tandy, died in this city a few years ago. Mr. Tandy and two of his brothers, Jack Tandy and Tom Tandy, had always lived together and carried on their business together. Both of these brothers died not long ago. One brother, D. A. Tandy, survives. The funeral services were conducted yesterday morning by Rev. W. E. Mitchell, of the Pembroke Baptist church, of which church deceased was a lifetime member. Interment in the cemetery at Pembroke.

Shocking Sounds

in the earth are sometimes heard before the terrible earthquake, that warn of the coming peril. Nature's warnings are kind. That dull pain or ache in the back warns you the kidneys need attention if you would escape those dangerous maladies, Dropsy, Diabetes or Bright's disease. Take Electric Bitters at once and see backache fly and all your best feelings return. "My son received great benefit from their use for kidney and bladder trouble," writes Peter Bondy, South Rockwood, Mich., "It is certainly a great kidney medicine." Try it. 50 cents at A Druggists.

Sublime and Ridiculous.

We like fine writing when it is properly applied; so we appreciate the following burst of eloquence in a contemporary: "As the ostrich uses both legs and wings when the Arabian courser bounds in her ear—as the winged lightning lea from the heavens when the thunderbolts are loosed—so does a little negro run when a big dog is after him."

Almost Lost His Life.

S. A. Stid, of Mason, Mich., will never forget his terrible exposure to a merciless storm. "It gave me a dreadful cold," he writes, "that caused severe pains in my chest, so it was hard for me to breathe. A neighbor gave me several doses of Dr. King's New Discovery which brought great relief. The doctor said I was on the verge of pneumonia, but to continue with the Discovery. I did so and two bottles completely cured me." Use only this quick, safe, reliable medicine for coughs, colds, or any throat or lung trouble. Price 50c and $1.00 Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by All Druggists.

Aid for the Invalid.

A stick of the right sort will help an invalid in many ways. It should be strong, yet light, with a stout iron hook on one end and a knob on the other. This will enable an invalid to adjust curtains, raise and lower shades and windows, push her rolling chair or move a screen, and aid herself in a variety of other ways.

He Won't Limp Now.

No more limping for Tom Moore of Cochran, Ga. "I had a bad sore on my instep that nothing seemed to help till I used Bucklen's Arnica Salve," he writes, "but this wonderful healer soon cured me." Heals old, running sores, ulcers, boils, burns, cuts, bruises, eczema or piles. Try it. Only 25c at All Druggists.

THE ITALIAN TREATMENT.

The Italians resort to a very simple method when they wish to obliterate the injurious effects of salt air and sunshine after a visit to their villas, the shore of the Adriatic, the Tyrrhenian sea or the lakes. They bathe the face with the white of an egg, well beaten, let it dry on the skin and rinse it off in soft water after fifteen minutes. The treatment is repeated three or four times, and always at night just before retiring.

Blamed A Good Worker.

"I blamed my heart for severe distress in my left side for two years," writes W. Evans, Danville, Va., "but I know now it was indigestion, as Dr. King's New Life Pills completely cured me." Best for stomach, liver and kidney troubles, constipation, headache or debility. 25c. at All Druggists.

SHOWING LIFE OF THE PAST

Remarkable Collection of Antiquarian Objects in Famous Museum at London, England.

In the arrangement of its varied contents—which include many thousands of objects, all bearing upon the history and life of London—the new London museum at Kensington palace is almost unrivaled. It had its material origin in private and anonymous benefactions, the intention being to bring together whatever objects of antiquity, including relics of remote ages, found in the course of excavation, remains of Roman, Celtic, Saxon and Norman London, which might throw light upon the social, domestic and public life of the inhabitants.

The stone and bronze ages are well represented, while Roman life is revealed by the large collection of objects bearing upon the little comforts of life in those times. Shoes of all ages are exhibited by thousands—including a real Roman sandal in leather, found in diggings in central London, down to the numerous styles of the fifteenth century.

Tudor caps, porcelain, silver dishes and ornaments, costumes and other things of the past are in abundance, the most interesting being a Roman galley, in which were some coins of A. D. 23. In the annex are wonderful reproductions of London as it was before the great fire.

QUITE WILLING TO QUALIFY

Little Thing Like the Serving of a Jail Sentence Had No Terror for Si Hoskins.

Gen. Ramsay Potts, praising patriotism at a Fourth of July dinner in Chicago a few years ago, said:

"I like to hold up as a patriotic example young Si Hoskins.

"Si once decided to enlist. He burnt with a desire to serve his country. So he applied at a recruiting office, and was duly punched and prodded, trotted up and down, jumped over chairs and tables, and so forth.

"Then came question time. All sorts of questions were fired at Si, and his answers were most satisfactory. Then came the stern inquiry:

"Have you ever served a jail sentence?"

"No—no sir," Si stammered; but, he added hastily, "I'd be very glad to do a medium-sized one if it's necessary."

MOTHER-LOVE.

All logic breaks down in the presence of growing things, as inexperienced city farmers and chicken growers know. Little children need love and constant personal adjustments. Love does for them what sunshine does for plants; it is an indispensable condition of good growth for minds and feelings. So, too, the social instinct, being among the earliest and most important of our powers to develop, needs constant personal adjustment as the condition of its best growth and realization. Nine hundred and ninety-nine mothers out of a thousand give these conditions to their babies, while the best-trained and most sanitary nurse cannot secrete love for several children any more than one mother can secrete milk for a group of children. It is not a matter of good will; it is a matter of human limitations.—Atlantic Monthly.

WOMEN'S BATTLEFIELD.

Mrs. Lydia B. Tague, Colorado's first and only woman judge, was discussing the anti-suffrage movement.

"Mrs. Humphry Ward and the other leaders of this movement," she said, "declare that, because woman is no soldier she can be no voter.

"There are a number of answers to that contention, but my answer would be this:

"Women have their own battlefields. There they fight with pain and death for every life that is added to the world."—Detroit Free Press.

THREE THINGS YOU NEED..

First—

"Kentuckian"

A wise, newsy newspaper with the interest of the entire community at heart. Issues of today are handled without fear or favor. You will find in this paper an up-to-date department for each member of the family. Clean, honest, straightforward—it is a paper your family should not be without.

Second—

Technical World Magazine

is the one magazine that not only entertains in a fascinating manner, but which also instructs. It is the magazine for the busy business man, or for the person who wants to kill away a summer's afternoon, and be agreeably informed at the same time. It is profusely illustrated, and tells in a simple and interesting way of the discoveries of scientists, the achievements of inventors, the feats of engineers and explorers, and the opening of every new field of human endeavor. What Jack London says—"I have just chanced upon my first copy of TECHNICAL WORLD MAGAZINE. There isn't anything like it. I want more, and I cannot wait for them to come, so I am sending you herewith check for which please enter my subscription and send me immediately the last two years' back numbers."

Third—

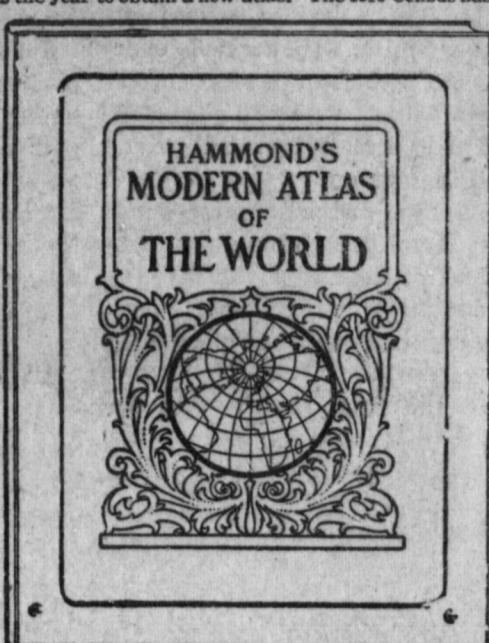

A Fine Atlas

This one is just off the presses. This is the year to obtain a new atlas. The 1910 Census has just been completed, this atlas contains the official figures. 128 pages of 3 color maps brought right down to date—every map giving the results of the most recent surveys. All railroads are shown and named and maps of all large cities are included. There are 21 double page maps showing in detail portions of the U. S. and Canada. Dimensions 10 1/4 x 13 1/4. Bound in stiff linen—Silver Leaf Title—printed on heavy plate paper. Sells regularly for $3.50. A splendid gift.

ALL THREE
Only $3.80

Special arrangement with Technical World Magazine and the publishers of this Atlas make this offer possible. But it is very strictly limited. You must act immediately.

SERVING THE TOMATO TAKE PLACE OF MEAT

DELICIOUS METHODS OF PREPARING WHOLESOME VEGETABLE.

DELICIOUS VEGETABLE SOUPS FOR THE HOT WEATHER.

Recipe That is Highly in Favor in Southern Italy—Meat Scallop, en Casserole—With New Potatoes and Nut Butter.

The origin of the tomato has never been positively ascertained, writes Henrietta D. Grauel in the Cleveland Leader. It was cultivated centuries ago in Mexico and Peru and in the sixteenth century it was brought into England and cultured as an exotic, but was supposed to be an active poison because a member of the nightshade family. Travelers found the Netherlands eating it as a vegetable, with salt, pepper and oil a few years later, and Italians soon commenced cultivating it and using it as an accompaniment to nearly every dish. Neither in America nor in any other country has it been so commonly eaten, separately and in combinations, as in southern Italy.

Tomatoes are a sovereign remedy for dyspepsia and digestive troubles and are among our most wholesome articles of food. A choice recipe:

Choose tomatoes of uniform size and from each one cut, after skinning, three or four choice slices to use for salad, for broiling or for garnishing. Put these in the refrigerator and proceed to cut the remaining pieces in cubes. Heat a little butter in a frying pan and in it brown a cup of bread cut in small squares. Add the tomatoes and cook gently until they are tender and almost dry. Spruce with cloves, cinnamon and a very small bit of mace; add a tablespoonful of sugar and a cup of milk or cream containing a teaspoon of cornstarch. Continue stirring until the mixture is as thick as rich cream.

Italian Meat Scallop, en Casserole.—Two cups of cold boiled rice, one cup of tomato cut in small bits, two cups of cold meat cut fine (chicken is best), a slice of onion if desired. Mix these together and place in a baking dish with alternate layers of buttered crumbs well seasoned with paprika, salt and ground sweet peppers. Bake thirty minutes.

A decidedly rich combination is tomatoes with new potatoes and nut butter; this is "a new discovery" and mighty fine. Soften three tablespoons of nut butter with hot milk and mix with a cup of mashed, well seasoned potatoes. Shape into a long roll and cut in lengths of three inches. Roll these loaves in flour and brown in hot butter and serve with broiled potatoes; or with well seasoned tomato sauce.

Broiled Tomatoes.—Place the slices on a broiler or on a bacon rack, sprinkle with salt and pepper and broil over or under a moderate fire about twenty minutes; turn once. Serve on a heated platter and dress with melted butter.

Stuffed With Succotash.—Remove the inside of the tomatoes and mix with a cup of succotash, refill the tomato and bake, basting with melted butter.

Kitchenettes.

Many housewives believe in boiling new earthenware before using it, as this effectually toughens and hardens it. This is particularly efficacious in the case of ordinary brown kitchenware, the articles being placed in a large pan of cold water which is then brought slowly to a boil. After being allowed to boil for ten minutes remove the pan and allow the water to cool before taking out the ware.

A kitchen bouquet, for flavoring soups can easily be made. Take a few sprigs of parsley and wrap them around peppercorns, whole cloves, a bay leaf and other herbs that are at hand. Tie up tightly. This can be removed from the soup without trouble.

To make string beans or cabbage tender in cooking them and also to shorten the time required for cooking the latter vegetable, add a pinch of baking soda to the water in which they are boiled. This, used judiciously, makes the vegetables as fresh and tender as when they came from the garden.

Washing Silver.

How many know that to let silver stand in sour milk a half hour, then wash in good soapy water will make it look as bright as to polish it with silver paste?

When lace curtains are ready to be washed, baste a narrow strip of muslin in along each outer edge and let remain until ironed (or drying process is completed), and you will find your curtains are straight and do not sag as usual.

A tablespoonful of vinegar put into the water in which meats or fowls are boiled makes them tender.

Camphor put in drawers or trunks will keep mice away.

Spanish Cream.

Over one-half package of gelatine pour one cup of cold water and set aside for two hours, heat a pint of milk to scalding point and pour it over the soaked gelatine, stirring all the time. When the gelatine is entirely dissolved add the yolks of four eggs that have been beaten light, with a small cup of powdered sugar. Stir over the fire for three minutes, then take off the range and flavor with vanilla. Let it get cold, but not stiff, and whip into it gradually one pint of whipped cream. Turn into a mold wet with cold water and set in the ice to form. This is a delightful rich dessert and is wholesome.

Something of a Novelty is One Calling for Fresh Garden Peppers—Onion Soup Brought to Perfection in France.

An housekeeper whose family doesn't care very much for flesh food in summer can find any number of delicious vegetable soups to take the place of meat decoctions, and having once formed the habit of using them it is likely to be a lasting one.

The following soup, calling for fresh garden peppers, is a novelty: Mince three large peppers and three small onions together and stew them gently, till tender, in a little butter—about two tablespoonfuls—without browning. Then thicken to a paste with a generous tablespoonful of flour and gradually stir the mixture into a quart of boiling milk. Season with salt and pepper. Gradually add also, stirring well, the yolks of three eggs, and then remove from the fire immediately and serve very hot with croutons. Do not let it cool long or it may curdle. If one or two of the peppers are a bright red, instead of green, they will lend pretty tints to the soup.

For French onion soup, which returned travelers describe as food for the gods, fry four onions in two tablespoonfuls of butter or very nice soup fat. The latter is to be preferred because it is cheaper. When they are quite brown add a scant half cupful of flour, stirring all the time. When the flour is brown mix in carefully (a little at a time) about three pints of boiling water or stock. Season the whole with salt and pepper and put the soup near the back of the stove, where it will merely simmer for half an hour. Mash two potatoes and add enough warm milk to them to make a puree. Stir this puree into the soup and if too thick add a little fresh milk. Then strain and boil ten minutes. Serve very hot with croutons.

The following combination of rice and lettuce makes a delicious soup: Have ready the large leaves of three good-sized heads of lettuce. After draining, chop them up and put them in a saucepan with about a fifth of a pound of butter and cook for five minutes, stirring frequently. Stir the whole into two quarts of white stock. Season with a tablespoonful of salt, a teaspoonful of pepper, half a teaspoonful of grated nutmeg and a soup bouquet. Stir in also four ounces of well-cleaned rice. Cover the kettle and let it cook for three-quarters of an hour. Then strain the soup through a fine sieve. Let the soup heat once again, but do not let it boil. Stir in a pint of sweet cream and serve very hot, with croutons.

Chocolate Sponge Pudding.

Beat lightly two eggs, add one cupful of sugar and beat for three minutes more. Then add one cupful of flour, into which has been sifted one teaspoonful of baking powder. Stir well and add a half cupful of boiling water, season with one teaspoonful of vanilla extract, pour into a square pan and bake in a moderate oven. When cool cut in two inch squares and pour over a cream made as follows: Place in a double boiler one pint of milk, and when hot stir in half a cupful of sugar, into which has been mixed one tablespoonful of corn starch, a bar of unsweetened chocolate, grated fine, and a small lump of butter. Stir until smooth and pour over the squares of cake.

Boiled Cider Sauce.

Delicious for fruit pudding. Rub to a light cream, two cups of white sugar and three-fourths cup butter; beat into it gradually one-half teacup boiled cider. Just before serving set into a kettle of boiling water; heat it hot, but do not let it boil. Pour over pudding made as follows: One cup buttermilk; one-half cup sugar; one tablespoon lard (melted), flavor vanilla, one egg. Put in enough flour to make cake batter; one teaspoon baking powder sifted in flour. Put cherries or any fruit in teacups, three tablespoonful; fill cups to one-half full with batter. Put in steamer and steam one hour.

New Tea Table.

The latest thing in tea tables is one that can be used as a table or a tray. It has folding automatic legs and is in the shape of a tray 27 by 17 inches and 24 inches high when the legs are opened.

Some of these combination table trays are of plain mahogany with brass handles, others are inlaid; still others are of satin wood, plain or inlaid, with plated or sterling silver rims. The table can be utilized for cards by means of a board covered with green cloth that fits into the tray.

Borax for Laundering Lace.

In laundering lace bows and so forth, try rinsing in a solution of borax which will give them just the required stiffness. Two heaping table-spoons to five quarts of water is the proportion. This is also good for thin white waists. Better than starch.—"Home Department," National Magazine.

Cleaning Velvet.

Nothing cleans a velvet hat or gown like another piece of velvet. A small piece held firmly in the hand and used like a brush will produce excellent results.

MADE UP WITH GOOSEBERRIES

After-Dinner Sweets That Can Hardly Fail to Please All Members of the Family.

Gooseberry and Rice Pudding.—Butter a shallow pudding dish, put a layer of gooseberries in it, sprinkle with sugar and grated lemon peel, and then add a layer of boiled rice. Alternate these layers until the dish is full, having the last layer of rice. Sprinkle over with crumbs and bits of butter, and bake in a moderate oven until the fruit is tender; about half an hour will be sufficient.

Another very pleasing way to serve gooseberries with rice is as follows: Butter a mold, and cover the inside with a layer of boiled rice about an inch thick; leave the inside of the mold empty until the rice sets, then fill it with rich, thick stewed gooseberries; cover it with buttered paper, and steam it for an hour. Turn the pudding out carefully and serve with a thin custard or with cream and sugar.

Gooseberry Charlotte.—Top and tail the gooseberries, and stew until tender with a very little water. Add sugar to make quite sweet. Butter a shallow pudding dish, put in a layer of thin bread and butter, then a layer of the gooseberries and proceed in this way until the dish is full, having bread on top. Sprinkle over with brown sugar, pour over half a small cupful of water and make in a moderate oven for half an hour. Serve with whipped cream.—From the Housekeeper.

HOUSEHOLD QUESTIONS

A discolored bean pot may be restored to its original whiteness by letting buttermilk stand in it for a day or so.

If the brush is removed from the carpet sweeper, dipped in water, and then replaced, the sweeper will not raise a dust.

Lower the temperature of an oven considerably after the roast has been in for twenty minutes, and the juices will be retained.

Unbleached calico shrinks very much when washing. When making it up an extra inch a yard should be allowed for this.

The European method of cooking green peas is to boil them before shelling, and then to season and reheat them after shelling.

To prevent pictures from slipping and hanging uneven, hang them first face to the wall, and then twist around, making a cross in the wire.

When preparing a turkey or chicken, try rubbing it inside with a piece of lemon. It will whiten the flesh and make it more tender.

Good in Spinach.

Very young spinach is the best, and the fresh, juicy stalks and all can be cooked and minced together.

Poached eggs on spinach form a familiar dish, but the Italians vary it agreeably. First cook the spinach; then strain and mince it, and then stew it gently with butter; then beat up six new-laid eggs with it and stir these, and one ounce of Parmesan cheese into the spinach with a wooden spoon. Toss about rapidly until the mixture thickens, but do not let it boil. Serve on toast.

To cook spinach the good cook uses no water. First it has been thoroughly cleaned and washed until every grain of sand has disappeared. Then put in covered dish on range, stirring often; sufficient moisture will develop. By using extra water much of the good disappears when it is poured off. It takes about twenty minutes to cook it.

Rye Bread Requires No Kneading.

One pint rye flour, one cup molasses, one tablespoon salt, one tablespoon shortening; mix these well and scald with three pints of boiling water, stir well and set aside to cool. Take the molasses cup without rinsing, fill half full of lukewarm water and crumb the yeast cake into it. When the mixture has cooled enough stir in the yeast cake and mix stiff with white flour. Set to rise over night and in the morning stir down, put in tins, allow to rise very light and bake in moderate oven 45 minutes. This amount makes four large loaves.

Portuguese Birthday Pudding.

Boil half pound of rice in water until it begins to open. Then strain it from the water and boil it slowly with a quart of milk, half a pound of loaf sugar, and the peel of a lemon. When the rice is sufficiently boiled, remove from the fire and take out all lemon peel. Stir until cold. Then add four beaten eggs, stirring it all the while, and a wineglassful of orange flower water. When properly mixed, put into a flat dish, and sprinkle with cinnamon powder.

Cook in Asbestos Cones.

Asbestos cones will be found invaluable to the open air camper. Roll a sheet of asbestos in cone shape and set the small end securely in the campfire. In it may be baked apples, potatoes, eggs, etc. A good sized cone will take the place of several cooking utensils.

Suet Pudding.

One cup molasses, one cup water, one cup chopped raisins, one cup chopped suet, 2½ cups flour, one teaspoon soda, salt; steam three hours.

Compote of Rhubarb.

Make a syrup of six heaping tablespoons of sugar in about half a cup of water which has been flavored by simmering in it for 20 minutes the thinly pared rind of an orange or lemon. Prepare and cut the rhubarb into two-inch lengths, put a layer of these into the syrup and cook gently (in a double pan is the best way) until quite clear, but still unbroken; then remove carefully and stew another layer. When cold serve with custard or cream.

Eisenheimer Cheese.

Take one Philadelphia cream cheese, one-half quantity butter, one small pickle finely chopped, ten capers, one-quarter of an onion (Bermuda is best), and a few pounded caraway seeds. Mix thoroughly all together, mold on a small platter, then sprinkle a little cayenne pepper over all and keep in a cool place until ready to serve. Excellent for gentlemen's luncheon.

Simple Fruit Pudding.

Stew currants or any small fruits, fresh or dried, with sugar to taste and pour hot over thin slices of bakers' bread with crust cut off, making alternate layers of fruit and bread, and leaving a thick layer of fruit for the top. Cover over the top with a plate, and bake in a moderate oven; when cool set on ice. Serve with sifted sugar or with cream and sugar.

In Cold Water.

There are certain vegetables it is far better to put on in cold water than hot. Among these are dandelions, spinach, wax beans, carrots and onions. To get the best results, dandelions, spinach, cabbage, cauliflower, green peas and Brussels sprouts should be cooked uncovered.

Potatoes Baked in Cheese Sauce.

Place alternate layers of cold boiled potatoes, diced, and cheese sauce into a baking dish. Cover with buttered crumbs and bake till well browned.

VAST IMPROVEMENTS

PLANNED BY OFFICIALS OF
STATE FAIR IN BUILDING
EQUIPMENT.

New Grand Stand is Twice the Size of Old One and is Magnificent Structure.

With the greatest line of exhibits in the way of live stock as well as of all other products of which the state is famous, already guaranteed for the Kentucky State Fair this year, it is the prediction of those in charge of the arrangements that the exhibition to be held the week of September 9-14 inclusive, will be the biggest and best ever seen in the South or Middle West, and that it will mark an epoch in the history of agricultural and live stock exhibitions. Not since the Kentucky State Fair was inaugurated ten years ago has the same amount of interest been shown in the event as that being taken this year by the officials and the public spirited citizens throughout the State, insuring the greatest fair, from an artistic and display standpoint at least, in the history of the institution.

Chief among the improvements at the Fair Grounds this year, will be that of the enlarged grandstand which, when completed the latter part of August, will be twice the size of the stand that has been used to accommodate the crowds the past four years. The new addition to the stand will be of the same concrete construction as the part now standing and when completed the stand will have a seating capacity of five thousand people.

VAUDEVILLE SHOWS

OF HIGH GRADE WILL BE GIVEN
AT STATE FAIR AT NIGHT.

Trained Stallions and Elephants
Among Remarkable Evening Attractions September 9-14.

The big night show at the Kentucky State Fair this year will be the most elaborate ever prepared by the management of the institution. Believing that night patrons of the fair would rather witness high-class amusement than to spend their time in walking over the grounds in a vain effort to see many of the exhibits which naturally close at night, Secretary Dent has secured some of the most noted acts known to the show world, which will be seen in the magnificently lighted livestock pavilion each night, beginning at 8 o'clock. The management has gone to an expense of $5,000 to guarantee this list of attractions, among which will be seen Herzog's performing stallions, six in number and jet black and regarded as the most famous animal act in the world. The five Merkel Sisters, noted female acrobats; The Okuras, Japanese wonders; The Whirling Erfords, styled the "Human Butterflies;" Robinson's five performing elephants; The Eddy Family in two highly sensational acts; The Hengler Troupe of Russian Dogs, and other acts equally as high class. In addition to this high-class line of amusements visitors to the night show will also witness the best rings for light harness and saddle horses ever given in Kentucky. In addition to the $1,000 stake for five-gaited saddlers other rich rings for all other classes, in both saddlers and harness horses, will be contested each night during the week. Because of the enormous expense to which the management has gone in preparing for the big night show feature of the fair it has been decided to charge an admission of twenty-five cents to the pavilion at night. This price will entitle the visitors to any seat in the big auditorium except the boxes. For this sum they will witness the most famous American and European acts now before the public.

MIDWAY ATTRACTIONS

Best in History of Fair—Nothing Offensive to Decency or of Freak
Nature To Be Allowed.

The midway attractions to be featured at the State Fair this year will be far and above the average, as it is the purpose of the management to provide only the best for the patrons of the Kentucky institution. In order to carry out such an arrangement Secretary J. L. Dent will visit the show two weeks before the date of the Kentucky State Fair, which is the week of September 9-14, and make a personal inspection with a view of eliminating any and all unattractive or freak features. The shows engaged for the fair are the Mazeppa and United Shows combined, and this name in itself is sufficient to guarantee a high-class and clean line of attractions, but to make it doubly sure Secretary Dent has planned the personal inspection to satisfy himself. It is the purpose of the management to provide such a line of side-shows that parents can let their children visit the shows, day and night, without the attendance of older members of the family.

In order to further carry out this feature of the program, the management has contracted with a number of well-known Kentuckians to be stationed both on the inside and outside of each of the midway attractions during the week to look after the welfare of the patrons, and to see that nothing is sold or done that would in the least offend the eye or ear of any person within the inclosure.

SAVE WORK ON SEWING DAY

Here is a Bofled Dinner Satisfying and Appetizing and Easy to Get Up.

The working housekeeper who, besides, makes her own clothes, knows the misery of getting meals on sewing days. If there is a large family the dinner is the most difficult to prepare, as substantial dishes are expected and sometimes a variety of them. The way out of the difficulty is to prepare the kitchen with the idea that there will not be any grand cooking on sewing days and then serve a boiled dinner. A boiled meal is much more easily managed than a roast, and numerous vegetables may be cooked in the same pot. Here is one recipe for a boiled dinner:

Sauerkraut and Pigs' Feet—Few families with healthy men and boys will object to this delectable German dish, which is as good as cheap and does not require the least looking after.

Get a pig's foot, front or back, for every member of the family, clean them all nicely and then put them on in boiling water, including, if the taste is liked, two large onions or half a clove of garlic. Let them simmer for three hours, then dump in the sauerkraut you have bought at the delicatessen, giving it about an hour to cook. When ready to serve drain the kraut of water in a colander and bank it in a long platter around the pile of trotters. English mustard is an addition to this dish and to the other boiled meats.

GETTING UP THE CROQUETTE

Some Simple Rules That Are Indispensable for Success in This Appetizing Dish.

Soak one cupful of stale white bread crumbs in one-half a cupful of milk, mix with one cupful of chopped nuts (either mixed nuts or walnuts). Season with salt and pepper, add the beaten yolks of two eggs. Shape, egg and crumb. Fry in deep fat.

How to Shape Croquettes.—If the mixture is thick enough to be handled it may be rolled into any desired shape.

How to Egg and Crumb Croquettes.—Slightly beat an egg and add one tablespoon of water. Dip the croquette in this mixture and then roll it in very fine cracker or stale bread crumbs. The process may be repeated twice, which insures the croquette against soaking fat.

Rules for Testing Fat for Frying.—Drop into the hot fat a cube of bread from the inside of the loaf, and if in 40 seconds it is a golden brown, the fat is then of the right temperature for frying any mixture which has been previously cooked. For uncooked foods use the same test, allowing one minute for the bread to brown.—Woman's World.

Mother's Lemon Pie.

Grated rind and juice of one lemon, one cup boiling water, one cup sugar, yolks of two eggs, butter size of an egg, one slice white bread broken fine (about one cup). Beat the yolks of eggs well and add to the sugar and butter. Pour the boiling water onto the bread and stir until well mixed, then add the sugar, eggs and butter. Bake in a deep plate lined with pastry; when done whip the whites of the eggs to a stiff froth; add one tablespoonful sugar; pile this upon the top of the pie and return to the oven until it is a delicate brown. This is the nicest lemon pie I ever tasted.

ROUGH ON MRS. B.

Mrs. Benham—Do you remember what I wore when you proposed to me?

The charge at the funeral of the late Mrs. Benham was a relief of the cure.

Too Busy to Run.

Anne was not very well, and found walking with her vigorous mother hard work. Mamma, however, was pressed for time, and presently hurrying ahead, called to the struggling, panting little girl to run. From a little distance behind her came the breathless protest: "I can't run, mother. You'll just have to wait for me. I'm so busy walking that I can't run."

Don't buy a Range from a peddler when you can get a far better one at home for $10.00 less money.

SCRUBBING BRUSH AT DOOR

Good and Cheap. Cleaner in Muddy Weather—Some Other More or Less Helpful Hints.

A large, coarse scrubbing brush hanging near the kitchen door is a good and cheap cleanser in muddy weather, especially when the children are running in and out.

Glycerine is the best lubricant for the meat and vegetable grinder, for the reason that it does not leave unpleasant odor if brought into contact with the meat.

Now is the time of year when chloride of lime should be utilized in generous quantities.

Iron rust may be removed from white goods by boiling the articles in water containing cream of tartar, allowing three tablespoonsful to a gallon. This is more effective than lemon juice and salt.

To remove mildew from curtains wet them in clear water, then rub well and plentifully with laundry soap, after which put on a liberal coating of table salt and hang in the sun. Renew the treatment from day to day. If the mildew is bad it may take some time, but it is sure.

A pinch of borax put into the water with fresh cut flowers will make them last longer in hot weather.

Always lay a shirt on the table while packing, as it is most important that it should be kept flat.

TAKING OUT GREASE STAINS

Fresh Ox Gall Will Remove Obnoxious
Discolorations From Carpets—
Washing Muslin Curtains.

Grease stains on carpets can be taken out with fresh ox gall—get it from the butcher—and warm water. Dip a stiff brush in this and rub the spots vigorously, going over them afterward with a cloth dipped in clear tepid water and wrung out.

An excellent way to remove paper from the wall when desiring to re-paper a room is to make a rather thin flour paste and go over the paper with a large brush or cloth, wetting every part. After allowing this to stand for a little while the paper may be taken off in great strips without making a bit of dust or dirt.

To wash muslin curtains so that they will have a sheer look, boil two quarts of wheat bran in six quarts of water for half an hour and strain and mix in the water in which the curtains are to be washed. Unless the curtains are very soiled use no soap, for it both cleanses and stiffens. Rinse lightly in clear cold water.

Strawberry Trifle.

Cut a hole in a rice or sponge cake, leaving a wall all around about two inches thick. Put a layer of fresh strawberries sweetened to taste, make the removed portion of the cake into crumbs and screen the fruit with some of them. Saturate all with sherry or warm milk poured slowly over it. When it is cool put a thin layer of whipped cream, again sprinkle it with crumbs, over this spread a layer of fruit. Pile the whole with whipped cream and decorate it with whole strawberries.

Ideal Gruel.

To make gruel successfully great care must be exercised.

To make patent groats gruel, the required quantity should be mixed very smoothly and carefully with cold water; milk is apt to make it lumpy. When mixed, it should be added to equal quantities of boiling milk and water; boil all gently for 15 or 20 minutes. When done, three parts fill a cup, and serve with cold milk or cream and castor sugar.

Making Coffee.

One cupful of coffee and six cupfuls of cold water. Put coffee in cheese-cloth bag. Tie, allowing room for coffee to swell. Place in scalded coffee pot, cover with cold water and boil ten minutes. Remove bag, let stand two minutes on back of range, and serve with hot milk, sugar and cream.

Banana Pie.

Bake crust first. Take four bananas, slice them with a silver knife. Put bananas on crust and sprinkle confectioners' sugar over them. Have a bottle of cream ready. Beat quite stiff. Add sugar and vanilla to the cream, then pour over bananas. This is tried and tested.

Purple Aster Salad.

Cut some red cabbage in shreds about 2½ inches long and shape as an aster and put in center one-half a yoke of a hard-boiled egg. When you serve them put an aster on each small plate, as many as are wanted. Garnish with salad dressing.

Sour Cream Cookies.

Two eggs, two teaspoonsful butter, two cups of sugar, one cup of sour cream, one-half teaspoon of soda, one teaspoonful of baking powder, enough flour to make a nice soft dough, flavor with lemon extract.

Orange Sauce.

Whites of two eggs, juice and rind of one orange; three-quarters cup of sugar, one teaspoon lemon juice; beat whites until stiff, add sugar, add rind and fruit juices, beat well together; serve at once.

When Making Ginger Snaps.

The secret of good ginger snaps is to use boiling water when mixing, then cover the dough and let it stand for several hours before baking.—Home Department, National Magazine

METHOD OF SERVING DESSERT

Various Little Arrangements That Add Greatly in the Enjoyment of the Partakers.

Almost everything in the dessert menu is either arranged on flat round platters or else served individually in tall stemmed glasses. Jellies, if placed on round platters, can be garnished fancifully with whipped cream that has been run through the pastry tube to make rosettes. Ice cream can be moulded and repacked and then dished up on flat platters and prettily garnished with whipped cream and maraschino cherries or tiny bits of angelica. Even with all this garnishing there is ample room for the handsome serving spoon and fork to be placed on the sides of these platters. Maids carry these dishes with napkins over their right hands, the latter being placed flat underneath. They are passed to the left of each person to be served. There is even a graceful way for a maid to stand. As she stoops a little to offer her dish with her right hand she places her left hand close to her side and slightly behind her and turns her face away from the person whom she is serving.

Some women prefer serving a dessert course in stemmed glasses. If so, the cook dishes up soft custard with some sort of a whip on top, or ice cream to be made more delicious with a sauce, and sends these glasses to the pantry. They are placed by the second maid on dessert plates on which there are dillies. She then goes to the sideboard in the dining room, where she has previously laid out her fingerbowls on dillies and plates, takes one in each hand and proceeds to lay them down in front of each member of the family. As each one is removing the bowl, dolly and silver the waitress has returned to the pantry, taken one plate with stemmed glass in her right hand and returned to the hostess, where she takes up the unused (or place) plate with her left hand and puts down her dessert. She proceeds to serve all the members at table with this exchange of plates.

Kitchennettes.

If you wish to beat an egg very light, beat the white first to a froth, then add the yolk and beat.

In thickening gravies or sauce, try an egg beater to get out the lumps of thickening. The sauce or gravy will be as smooth as can be and will not need to be strained. Another way: If you are making milk toast or anything similar, put the thickening into the cold milk and stir constantly till done. It will be so smooth and free from lumps that you will feel well paid for a few moments' extra time. It does not take much longer.

To keep the zinc tray of a gas stove bright and clean, rub with benzine, then wash with soap and pulverized pumice. It will look like new. If spots are stubborn use a little kero sene.

Veal Croquettes.

Three level tablespoonfuls butter, three level tablespoonfuls flour, one fourth level teaspoonful salt, one-eighth level teaspoon pepper, three-fourths cup hot milk, few drops onion juice, one egg slightly beaten, two cups finely chopped cold meat will be needed for this recipe.

Melt the butter, add the flour, salt and pepper, and when blended add the hot milk gradually. Stir until thick and smooth. Add the meat, mix well and add the onion juice, egg and more salt and pepper if necessary. When sold, shape into croquettes and fry in deep fat.

Time-Saving Suggestion.

When the weekly wash comes up from the laundry, take the clothes that need mending and find patches of the material, yarn to darn with, or whatever is necessary to mend with, and pin the pieces to the article to be mended, then put them aside in a drawer or sewing bag until you have time to sit down quietly and sew. Having everything ready, you will be surprised at the amount you can do at one sitting. By this method the weekly mending loses half its terrors for the busy housekeeper.

Red Currant Cordial.

To two quarts of red currants put one quart of whiskey; let it stand 24 hours, then bruise and strain through a flannel bag. To every two quarts of this liquor add one pound loaf sugar; add quarter of a pound of ginger, well bruised and boiled; let the whole stand to settle; then strain or filter, bottle and cork; seal the corks tightly. It is an improvement to have half red raspberry juice if the flavor is liked. The above is ready to use in one month after made.

Raisin Drops.

These are very nice to serve with afternoon tea and keep indefinitely: Three eggs, one cup butter, one and one-half cups sugar, four cups flour, one cup raisins, four teaspoons cinnamon. Mix the cinnamon with the flour and beat into the creamed butter. Beat sugar with eggs, and then all together, as little as possible. Drop by teaspoonful in rough cakes, a little apart.

Trunk Linings.

Large bags of lavender in the compartment of trunks that must stand for any length of time, sweeten wonderfully the air that is so apt to grow musty. If trunk linings are slightly scented in this way dresses and underwear are more daintily fragrant at the end of the journey than when one folds a sachet among the garments themselves.

Large Party Will Leave Next Thursday.

Mr. W. A. Wilgus will leave Thursday morning for his annual tour to the North and East, with a party of probably twenty-five or thirty people. They will leave on a special car and will be absent sixteen days. This is one of the most enjoyable trips that can be taken and Mr. Wilgus' passengers are always loud in their praise of the elegant manner in which they are entertained by him on these outings. If there are others contemplating this enjoyable trip they should communicate with Mr. Wilgus today, in order that proper arrangements can be made, although this is "the eleventh hour."

Mrs. Powell Almost Dead.

Dry Ridge, Ky.—"I could hardly walk across the room," says Mrs. Lydia Powell, of Dry Ridge, "before I tried Cardui. I was so poorly I was almost dead. Now I can walk four miles and do my work with much more ease. I praise Cardui for my wonderful cure." Cardui is successful in benefitting sick women because it is composed of ingredients that act specifically on the womanly constitution, relieving headache, backache, irregularity, misery and distress. Only a good medicine show such continual increase in popularity as Cardui has for the past 50 years. Try Cardui, the woman's tonic.

Down To Fifty-Two.

The cold wave which struck this section Friday night played havoc with all previous records for the first days of August. The days and nights were cool, and by the government thermometer the mercury registered a drop to 50 degrees Saturday night and during the day it rose to 71. Sunday night it dropped again to 50 degrees and during the day it rose to 81. Yesterday it was quite cool up to noon, but turned warmer in the afternoon.

FOR THE HOUSEKEEPER

Spiced Peaches.

Four pounds of peaches, one cupful vinegar, one tablespoonful of cinnamon, one tablespoonful of cloves, three pounds of brown sugar, one teaspoonful of ginger, one teaspoonful of red pepper. Boil the sugar and the vinegar. Scald the peaches, remove the skins and cook in the syrup. Tie spices in a bag and cook with the peaches. When the peaches are tender, pour into stone jars, reheat the syrup every day for a week, pouring when boiling over the peaches. All kinds of small fruits may be spiced in this manner.

Experienced Cooks Say.

Lemon juice and powdered sugar are delicious with feathery wheat cakes. It is said that the Kaiser is especially attached to this dish.

When baking potatoes, rub dry and grease. This causes the outer skin to peel off very thin, thus saving the most nourishing part.

String bean salad is good. Like all salad ingredients, the beans should be very cold. Marinate them, after drying and chilling, with French dressing and place on a bed of lettuce leaves. Egg quarters or slices garnish.

Mahogany Cake.

Mix together three eggs, well beaten; half cup of butter, 1½ cups of sugar, half cup of sweet milk in which have been dissolved one teaspoonful of soda, and two cups of flour; cook half cup of chocolate in half cup of milk and add last, flavoring with vanilla. Bake in layers and put together with caramel filling.

Caramel Filling—Stir together one cup of sugar and half a cup of milk, place on the stove and boil until stiff enough to spread, and flavor with vanilla.

Grease Stains.

It is sometimes difficult to keep the kitchen paper free of grease stains. Grease stains disappear entirely if a mixture of pipe clay and water, made the consistency of a cream, is spread over them and allowed to remain overnight. In the morning it should be removed with a clean brush.

Asparagus With Cream.

A delicious variation for asparagus is to bake it in a cream sauce. Cook in salted water until tender, drain, put in a butter-baking dish and pour enough cream sauce over to cover. Sprinkle with grated Swiss or Parmesan cheese, and a few bits of butter and brown in the oven.

Cleaning Silver Laces.

To clean silver or gold laces or braids when they have become tarnished, apply spirits of wine with a soft flannel cloth.

One Dead, One Hurt.

Clarified Syrup.

French recipes sometimes call for clarified syrup. Here is Francatelli's method of preparing it: To every pound of the finest loaf sugar add rather more than a pint of water. When the sugar is dissolved add half the white of an egg whipped up in a little water. Whisk the whole together, set the stew pan on the fire and as soon as the syrup begins to boil set it down where it will cook more slowly. Let it simmer gently until all the scum rises to the top. Remove all as it rises, and on removing from the fire strain through a napkin. Keep it in a cool place for use in making jelly and sweets.

Making Amber Marmalade.

Take one grapefruit, one orange, and one lemon, then wash them and wipe dry. Cut into quarters. Cut the quarters through, peel and pulp into thin slices, discarding the seeds. Add three quarts and one pint of cold water and let stand overnight.

Next day cook till the peel is tender; it will take several hours. Set away overnight, then add five pounds of sugar and cook, stirring occasionally, until the syrup thickens slightly on a cold dish.

Samp Porridge.

Soak one quart of samp and one pint of pea beans together overnight. In the morning put in a kettle and cover generously with water. Simmer from two to three hours. Add three pounds of corned beef with one pound of salt pork and simmer another three hours. Serve on a large platter, putting the meat in the center and arranging the vegetables around it.

Jelly Roll.

Three eggs, beaten light; lemon extract, pinch of salt, one cup of sugar. Two cups of flour, previously sifted, add two teaspoonfuls of good baking powder, then sift again. Mix well together, add half cup of boiling water and bake in a well buttered square dripper until a nice brown. Turn out; spread quickly with red currant jelly and roll. Place in a napkin till cold.

Graham Pudding.

Mix well together one-half a coffee cup of molasses, one-fourth cup of butter, one egg, one-half cup of milk, one-half teaspoon saleratus soda, 1½ cups of graham flour, one small tea cup of raisins, spices to taste, steam four hours and serve brandy or wine sauce.

Raspberry and Currant Tart.

Line a deep pie tin with pastry and fill with alternate layers of raspberries and currants, sprinkling each layer with sugar. Dust the top with sugar, dot with butter and bake. Cover with meringue, brown this slightly, and serve cold with sweet cream.

NOTICE.

I will on Saturday the 17th day of August 1912, at Garrettsburg, Christian County, Kentucky, and at the residence formerly known as the John B. White place, at Garrettsburg and now owned by me, offer for sale at public outcry a tract of land containing about 40 acres and situated in the state and county aforesaid, near Garrettsburg; and belonging to the late Eliza J. White; I being empowered by her to sell and convey said land to the purchaser. Said land will be sold to the highest bidder, and the terms of sale will be one-half cash and the balance to be paid six months after date, the purchaser to execute a note therefor with lien retained upon land to secure same, and bearing 6 per cent interest from date until paid, and payable to me as Executor.

I will also sell on said occasion the following personal property belonging to the said Eliza J. White, to-wit:—One piano, some beds and bedding and other household furniture, and a one-half interest in a cooking stove. The terms of the sale of said personal property will be cash; and all persons who contemplate bidding on said property will please come prepared to comply with the above terms. The sale will take place promptly at 10:00 A. M., August 17th 1912, on my premises at Garrettsburg as aforesaid. August 2, 1912

FOREST KINGS IN MINIATURE

Process That Once Was Known Only to the Japanese No Longer Closely Guarded Secret.

For several centuries a certain Japanese village has flourished by its miniature tree cultivation. The plants are sold to the nobility for decorative purposes and generally bring a very fair price. Any kind of tree may be stunted by the process and the variety is easily recognized.

A friend of the writer had occasion to visit the estate of a certain English lord and was much fascinated with the miniature oaks and pines which adorned the tables. It seems that they had been grown under direction of the head gardener by the following process:

An ordinary orange was cut in half and the contents removed. The peel in this form was coated with shellac on the outside and the two halves set out to dry. Fine, rich soil was then placed in each half and seed of the desired tree planted therein.

After a few months the roots had reached such magnitude as to project through the skin and shellac coating. They were then cut off flush with the surface of the peel. This process, together with watering, was repeated daily.

It was found that the oak tree consumed the longest time in attaining maturity, from two to four years being required. Other trees, such as the pine and fir, reached full growth in about a year and a half.

HIS IDEA

The Critic—That's good. The hats the women wear nowadays are so big that you can hardly see it as it is.

WORLD'S POPULATION.

Of recent years the custom of making a systematic census of the population has become well established throughout all civilized countries, and it is now possible to gain a fairly accurate idea of conditions all the world over.

Some of the figures now cited in regard to this matter are interesting. The world's total population is estimated at 1,700,000,000, out of which the proportion of the sexes is known for 1,038,000,000, the ratio being 1,000 males to 990 females. The ratio varies considerably in different places. In Europe there were for every 1,000 men 1,027 women; Africa, 1,045; America, 964; Asia, 961; Australia, 937.

The maximum proportion of women is found in Uganda, 1,467; the minimum in the Alaska gold fields and the Malay states, with 391 and 389 respectively.—Chicago Tribune.

BETTER MEAT NOWADAYS.

J. Ogden Armour, defending packing-house methods at a luncheon in Chicago, said:

"We eat, thanks to the packers, more wholesome meat than we formerly did. My father used to tell a story about a farm boy who once called at a house and took an order for a leg of mutton. Then, a day or two later, the boy called again.

"You'll have to countermand that mutton order, ma'am," he said. "Yes? Why so?"

"The sheep's improved," said the boy.

WHERE MAN NEVER RESTS.

Farmer (to one of his laborers, who had come home after his first training in the militia)—Which would you rather be, a soldier or a farm hand, Paddy?

Pat—A soldier, of course.

Farmer—And why so, Paddy.

Pat—Well, you see, you'd be a long time working for a farmer before he'd tell you to stand at ease.—Tit-Bits.

CONFIRMED PROOF

Residents of Hopkinsville Cannot Doubt What Has Been Twice Proved.

In gratitude for complete relief from aches and pains of bad back—from distressing kidney troubles—hundreds have publicly recommended Doan's Kidney Pills. Residents of this vicinity who so testified years ago, now say the results were permanent. This testimony doubly proves the worth of Doan's Kidney Pills to Hopkinsville kidney sufferers.

John Franklin, Earlington, Ky., says: "I have had no occasion to use Doan's Kidney Pills nor any other kidney remedy since this preparation cured me some years ago. You are at liberty to use my testimonial as heretofore. I had pains in the small of my back when stooping or lifting and I became tired easily. I also had dizzy spells and had to get up at night to pass the kidney secretions. Doan's Kidney Pills proved their merits by relieving me."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-McBum Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Trouble With Ladies' Watches.

"We always have a vast deal more trouble with women than with men about the watches they carry," said a jeweler. "No matter how expensive a lady's watch or how correctly made it seems to need regulation and repair about twice as often as a man's watch. Of course most women forget to wind their watches, but aside from that they wear them so irregularly that the watch has the same environment about three days in seven."

"I suffered habitually from constipation. Doan's Regulants relieved and strengthened the bowels so that I have been regular ever since."—E. Davis, Grocer, Sulphur Springs, Texas.

Useless Worrying.

An old author has remarked that there are two things which it does no good to worry about—what you can help, and what you can't help. The latter, because fretting won't help the matter; and in the former, because it is your duty to go and help it, without fretting.

Cheapest accident insurance—Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. For burns, cuts, cuts and emergencies. All druggists sell it. 25c and 50c.

Roasted Victim Alive.

An almost unbelievably cruel happening has come to light at Hiroshima, Japan. There a man and his wife have been arrested for willfully cremating a live man. The prisoners were in charge of a crematorium, and while at work a faint voice coming out of a coffin begged for fresh air. The couple took no notice, however, and proceeded to apply fire, roasting the man alive.

Feel languid, wear, run down? Head-ache? Stomach "off"? A good remedy is Burdock Blood Bitters. Ask your druggist. Price $1.00

Occupation Not Overcrowded.

In a period when many business and professional men complain of unusual dullness in their various callings it is pleasant to record that one occupation diligently followed by many persons of both sexes is at its height. We refer to the business of minding other people's business.

For any itchiness of the skin, for skin rashes, chaps, pimples, etc., try Doan's Ointment. 50c at all drug stores.

Memory Training for Witnesses.

It has been suggested that it would be a good plan for courts to enforce a loss of memory cure upon a large number of the witnesses who make their appearance in some of the big cases. Perhaps the correspondence schools would make a reduction for job lots and cut down on the fee.

The Fashion for Housekeeping.

It is no longer fashionable not to know on which side the bread is buttered or how to cook a potato. The intelligent society woman nowadays is scientifically domesticated. She can meet her own cook without finching and can, moreover, give that autocrat "points" on culinary matters.

Electrify the Pupils.

They are using electricity in primary school education in Stockholm. Just how it is used does not appear, but we are told that the "classroom is subjected to electricity." And records are being kept to ascertain whether the electrically trained youngsters acquire the three Rs with greater precision and dispatch than those that are being brought up on sunlight, common sense and the rod.

GOOD SUBSTITUTE FOR MEAT

Will Be Appreciated, as a Change, by Those Who Are Not Strict Vegetarians.

This dish calls for two cups of thoroughly boiled cold barley, one cup of finely ground roasted peanuts, one cup of fine bread crumbs, one teaspoonful of salt and one saltspoonful of white pepper or paprika, one stick of celery, two tablespoonfuls of olive oil or three of butter, four tablespoonfuls of browned flour, one large onion, and vegetables stock or water.

Make a brown sauce of the oil, flour, and vegetable stock to thin to the consistency of thick cream sauce. Chop the onion fine and simmer it five minutes in a tablespoonful of butter, then stir in the barley, then the peanuts and bread crumbs mixed together with the salt, pepper, and celery. Add the hot brown sauce (left over gravy may be used for this). Mold into a loaf, mixing all ingredients well. Grease a roasting pan, place the loaf in it and cook in a hot oven ten minutes; then add a tablespoonful of butter melted in a cupful of hot water and baste with this every five minutes for one-half hour.

Remove to a hot platter and make a cupful of brown gravy in the pan and serve in a sauceboat. If tomatoes are in season, garnish the platter with slices dipped in seasoned flour and fried brown. Over all sprinkle the minced parsley.

Other cooked cereals or combinations of cereals may substitute the barley. A corn and rice mixture would be good.

DESSERT DISHES OF RHUBARB

Pudding, Tapioca, or Shortcake, Any One of Them Makes a Delicious Confection.

Rhubarb Pudding.—Mash half a pound of bag or pulled figs, or use dates or raisins or a mixture of all or two of these fruits. Cover with boiling water and cook until water is nearly absorbed. Cut a pound of rhubarb in inch pieces, put a layer of the cooked dried fruit, and repeat until all is used. Add a quarter of a cup of hot water and bake in a slow oven until the rhubarb is soft. Serve cold alone or with cream.

Rhubarb Tapioca.—Soak half a cup of tapioca over night and cook until clear in a double boiler. Place in a buttered pudding dish two cups of rhubarb, cut in small pieces; one cup of sugar and a pinch of ginger. Pour the hot tapioca over this, stir in one teaspoonful of butter, cover and bake one hour. Put a meringue on it before serving, if you like, or serve it cold, with plain or whipped cream.

Rhubarb Shortcake.—Put two cups of rhubarb, cut small, with a scant cup of sugar in a double boiler and cook until rhubarb is tender and sugar dissolved. Add the juice and chopped rind of one lemon. Make a shortcake by your favorite recipe, but cut and bake it like biscuit. When done, break open, butter them and arrange on a hot dish. Put the rhubarb in between, and when serving pour the juice over them.

Successful Jelly Making.

Use good fruit which is a little under ripe.

Use the best granulated sugar. Do not make large quantities of jelly at one cooking.

Heat the sugar in the oven before adding it to the fruit juice.

If the juice must be boiled down, always do so before the sugar is added.

The jelly will be clearer and finer if the fruit is simmered gently and not stirred during cooking.

Do not allow the syrup to boil rapidly, or crystals may appear in jelly. Always make jelly on a bright, clear day.

Wash the jelly glasses in hot water and set them on a folded cloth wrung out of hot water.

Set the jelly in a sunny window for twenty-four hours, then cover with melted paraffin and set in a dry, cool place.—Woman's World.

Antiseptic Soap.

Five pounds rendered fat; one can concentrated lye; three pints cold water, one heaping teaspoonful pulverized borax; one cup of ammonia; two ounces glycerine; two teaspoons carbolic acid. Pour can potash into the water and let stand till dissolved, stir occasionally. Add ammonia and borax. Melt fat and add, then stir till of a creamy consistency, then put in glycerine and acid. Perfume with extract of sassafras. Turn soap into granite pan to harden. Mark off while soft. Follow directions carefully.—"Home Department," National Magazine.

Stewed Beetroot.

Bake the beetroot one hour, when cold take off the skin, cut it into slices a quarter of an inch thick, put it into a stewpan with half a pint of any stock, a saltspoon of salt, the same of pepper, one-half a grain of cayenne, a shallot chopped, two sprigs of parsley chopped; simmer three-quarters of an hour, add a wineglass of vinegar and serve.

Shrinking Cotton.

As cotton materials shrink they must either be shrunk in the piece or made a size larger and luck struck that the garment may not shrink beyond all wearing. In shrinking anything, use boiling water until it is thoroughly saturated and then wring out and dry; sprinkle and iron on the wrong side with a hot iron until the fabric is perfectly dry.

The Latest Machine Invented

The Prosperity Collar Machine and has been in use at Hopkinsville Steam Laundry for two months. The machine spoken of will eliminate broken edges on fold collars, gives space for tie to slide, and collar with nice oval edge looks better and feels better than the saw edge kind. We have extensive use of said machine in Hopkinsville.

Our shirts are engaged in sanitary Protex cover which costs more, but looks better and keeps in nicer shape than other methods, but customer pays no more than for other work. Get in line, buy a $5 book and help The Avalon along. Metcalf will appreciate your assistance in a worthy cause for Hopkinsville and surrounding country.

A FINE LINE OF COPYRIGHTED ART CALENDARS.

The plans for your advertising campaign this year should by all means include a handsome Art Advertising Calendar for 1913. We have secured the exclusive agency for the Copyrighted Calendars produced by the A. M. Collins Mfg. Co., of Philadelphia.

This is one of the largest and most substantial Calendar houses in the United States, and the quality of their line is superior to that of any ever shown in this section.

This line will be handled exclusively by us in Christian and Trigg counties. It includes a great number and variety of subjects in full color, as well as some hand colored pictures of exceptional beauty.

The samples for 1913 will be in our hands shortly, and we shall be glad to show them to you at an early date. MAKE NO PLANS FOR YOUR 1913 CALENDAR UNTIL YOU SEE THIS EXTRAORDINARY LINE.

SOME FAULT IN RECKONING

Traveler in Arizona Did Not Seem to Be Making Much Progress to His Destination.

At sea, when no observation of the sun can be made, the position of the ship is determined by the sailing-master from the course held and the rate of speed observed. Something like that has to be done on the desert. There distance is reckoned by allowing about two and a half miles to the hour for an ordinary camel-train. On the desert lands of our southwest, however, the estimates of distance vary according to the estimator's opinion of the traveler's mount. Mr. D. Wallace, in his "Saddle and Camp in the Rockies," found that out when he was crossing Arizona.

Eighteen miles beyond Seaman's ranch lies Hatch, the first settlement on the west fork of the Sevier river. This I aimed to reach in half a day. From the ranch there is a gradual rise for several miles before the descent is begun. I had crossed the divide and was dropping down the north slope when I met a horseman. "How far is it to Hatch?" I inquired.

"Eight miles; maybe a little less," he answered.
That was encouraging. Two or three miles farther on I met another. "How far to Hatch?" I asked.
"Plumb twelve miles, and long ones," he advised, and my spirits fell.

Presently I met another. Still anxious to learn what progress I was making, I again put the question, "How far to Hatch?"
"Not more'n six miles."

I was again hopeful and expectant, until at the end of another two miles I met a fourth, a man who insisted that Hatch was still "ten good long miles away."—Youth's Companion.

MODERN INSTANCE.

Murray Wheeler, vice-consul for Russia at Mobile, said at a bouillabaisse luncheon, apropos of Independence day:

"It is a sad but inspiring thing to think of that bell-ringer, who, ringing out the tidings of American freedom, died for joy."

But a young English "remittance man" sneered at this remark and said:

"Have you ever known anyone to be actually killed by joy?"

Mr. Wheeler smiled at the Briton and retorted:

"Well, I did know a beautiful Yankee heiress once who was found lying dead across the coffin of her husband, old Lord Laclands."

SWISS EAT LITTLE MEAT.

There is no likelihood of our per capita consumption of meat diminishing very greatly while there is a chance of drawing on other countries for supplies, but if we do have to cut down, it will be a long time before we are put on as short rations as the Swiss, who only consume seventy-five pounds per capita, and manage to get along very nicely with that quantity. — San Francisco Chronicle.

RELEVANT.

Prue—Did the bride get a pearl necklace from the groom?
Hugh—No, boxing gloves. She married her second husband again.
—Judge.

PLEASANT FOR BORELEIGH.

Boreleigh—I hope my call has not tired you.
Miss Keen—Oh, no. I inherit a wonderfully strong constitution.

LURE OF THE CITY CONSTANT

Human Nature Such That Its Appeal
Always Will Be Felt and Given Heed.

There are two human attributes to which the city appeals irresistibly, quite apart from the better opportunity it affords of material advancement—the gregarious instinct and the love of excitement. Improved locomotion and means for communicating thought from eye to eye and from ear to ear, the organization of social functions in rural centers, and lectures illustrated by the moving life in the cinematograph—to take the latest addition to the mechanical aids to exposition—will all help. But their influence may be centripetal with some, centrifugal with others. No conceivable device by which the country may gain some share of the enjoyment of the town can destroy the lure of the city. The farmer's calling is one of constant and unremitting toil. No process of evolution will evolve a cow which will consent to do without milking on Sunday. A modest standard of physical comfort, devoid of all expensive luxuries, must continue to be the lot of the tillers of the soil. The one way to offset the townward tendency is to revolutionize the mental outlook of the rural population, to concentrate it upon the open country.—Atlantic Monthly.

REALLY DESERVED DAY OFF

Colossal Nerve of Office Boy Secured
Desired Permission From His Dazed Boss.

The office boy wanted a new excuse. He had buried countless grandmothers, brothers, sisters, aunts and cousins, but he felt an enthusiasm for the baseball game that day which had to be gratified by hook or crook.

Suddenly an idea struck him. Approaching the easy boss with an air of familiarity, which had been nurtured by long usage, he asked:

"May I leave at noon today, sir?"

"Why, my boy?"

"There is a fancy fair at our church this afternoon and mother wants me to go. Yes, sir, and she was so anxious about it that she bought me a ticket, which cost a dollar, as she was sure you would allow me the few hours off. I have to assist at the refreshment stall, and it seems a pity to waste—"

"But surely you are above such things as that, which take you away from your work. Why not give the ticket to one of your sisters?"

"Well, sir, that wouldn't be fair, for, you see, I am the only one in our family who can eat a dollar's worth and—"

The nerve won the day.—New York Evening Sun.

NERVE WASTE.

Most women and some men are addicted to the talk habit. Talking uses up more nerve force than almost any work in which a human being can engage in; yet women who are nervous, weak and incapacitated for work will indulge in excited and wholly needless conversation by the hour and fancy themselves doing nothing—resting! Mistaken but well-meaning friends visit the invalid for an entire afternoon and extract more vitality from the ailing one than would, perhaps, if rightly applied, restore her to health. Women unfit for household duties, hire a maid to do their work, and then spend a large proportion of their time flitting about among their friends recklessly expending their already flagging nervous energy in purposeless talk, talk, talk.—Health Culture.

ROOF GARDEN FOR CHURCH.

Boston is to have the first church in America with a roof garden, to be used as a children's playground during the day and for open air services on warm evenings.

It will be the new Clarendon Baptist church, badly burned last winter. The trustees have decided to build an up-to-date structure, omitting a steeple. Motion pictures will be used to aid Bible study.

HAD HAD EXPERIENCE.

"When a person wants to give you a thing you don't have to beg for it."
"Oh, I don't know about that."
"You ought to, I just told you."
"Did you ever beg a girl for a kiss?"
"No, sir. If it was the right girl I took one, and if it was the wrong girl there was no use begging."

Old Lady's Sage Advice.

Knoxville, Tenn.—Mrs. Mamie Towe, of 102 W. Main Street, this city, says: "If you had seen me, before I began to take Cardui, you would not think I was the same person. Six doctors failed to do me good, and my friends thought I would die. I could hardly get out of bed or walk a step. At last an old lady advised me to take Cardui, and now I can go most anywhere." All ailing women need Cardui, as a gentle, refreshing tonic, especially adapted to their peculiar ailments. It is a reliable, vegetable remedy, successfully used for over 50 years. You ought to try it.

LOCAL PARAGRAPHS.

Last Saturday was a real fall day. The mercury dropped to 68 degrees. Men were wearing overcoats and ladies heavy wraps. Some people had fires in their grates.

Workmen began putting down a concrete sidewalk on the West side of the post office on Virginia street.

The election last Saturday was perhaps the most quiet ever held here. In this city there was but one candidate to be voted for, Hon. A. O. Stanley for Congress, consequently but few voters left their business to go to the polls.

The old song, "December's pleasant as May," can be changed to, "August's as pleasant as any of them."
